

© Deborah Martínez

Day 3-4	T277	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> mighty acre scenic huge gigantic enormous mammoth gargantuan 	#2 Explain Thoughts, Feelings, & Opinions	Comparative & Superlative Adjectives; -er, -est, more than. Superlatives; -est, most. Conjunction; because.	Did you find some landforms more impressive than others? Compare a landform to another landform. Which landform did you like the most? Why? (landform) are (adjective + -er) than (landform) EX: Canyons are stronger than sand dunes. (Express an opinion), (landform) are (modifier + superlative) (landform) of all (conjunction) _____. EX: In my opinion, waterfalls are the most interesting landforms of all because they are tall and beautiful.	I I
Day 1	T284e -T284f		#6 Describe Actions & Sequence	Adverbs with -ly & without -ly; well, very, too, enough	What are some incredible (not believable) events in a story you have read or seen on TV? In the story, (title of story), (Character) (adverb -ly + verb) _____. EX: In the story, Piecing Earth and Sky Together, Koh patiently created the sky. In the story, (title of story), (Character) _____ + (adverb w/o -ly + verb) _____. EX: In the story, Piecing Earth and Sky Together, Koh's sky was too small for Toh's Earth.	I I
Day 1	T284-T285		# 3 Seek Information & Clarification	Formulating Questions (past, present, future) ; Who, What, Where, When, Why, and How & New Vocabulary	(Question word) with be (am, is, are, was, were) + vocabulary. Who has a huge heart in your family? What do mighty feet make you think of? Where is there an acre? When is your enormous truck getting washed? Why do you like scenic landforms? How big is gargantuan?	I
Day 1	T284-T285		#4 Explain Characteristics of People, Places and Things	Possessive Pronouns, Multiple Adjectives & Adjectives with -ish or -y.	Have student's write exaggerations using two or more key words. (Possessive Pronoun) + (Adjective + Adjective) + (noun + optional Prepositional Phrase). EX: My father's mighty, strong hands can lift a huge mountain range. EX: Our school has a brownish, huge, acre of land for our new playground equipment.	EA

Day 2	T286c T286d		#1 Manage Conversations & Participate in Discussion	Complex Sentences Adverbs with –ly, & Adverbs that Describe Frequency; always, never, sometimes, usually, seldom, frequently, often, etc. Conjunction; because, and	What do you take with you in a long ride with your family ? Why? I (Adverbs that Describe Frequency) + (verb + noun) + (prepositional phrase) + (Conjunction; because) + (noun + verb + adverb –ly) + (conjunction; and) _____. EX: I often take a book to read in a long ride with my family because my sister sleeps quietly in the car seat and I don't want to wake her up. EX: I seldom take a book to read in a long ride with my family because everybody talks loudly and I can't concentrate.	I/EA
Day 3-4	T292- T293		#9 Predict and Express Cause & Effect	Conjunctions (connecting adverbs); As, As a result, for that reason, since, subsequently, therefore, this led to & Negative Conditionals.	Why does Carrie dig Mammoth Cave? (State the fact); (adverbial conjunction)+ (effect). (Predict Possibility), (state the effect negatively). EX: Carrie lost her wishbone; as a result, she dug Mammoth Cave. If she hadn't lost it, Mammoth Cave wouldn't exist. EX: Carrie dropped her wishbone; for that reason, she dug Mammoth Cave. If she hadn't dropped it, Mammoth Cave wouldn't look the way it does now.	EA